THE REPUBLICANS OF FIRST DISTRICT

Absalom Waller Mentioned for the Congressional Nomination.

NORTHERN NECK R. R. TALK

A Northumberland Citizen Thinks in Would Pay Richmond and Fredericksburg to Build the Road Without Outside Help-Drunk.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., August 26. t has been generally supposed that the tepublicans of the First District would not nominate a candidate for Congress this year, but the action of the District Committee in calling a convention at Cape Charles for September 18th would seem to dispel this idea. It is stated by some that the recent utterances of President Roosevelt is responsible for this change of sentiment. Certainly there has subject and the name of only one gentleman has so far been mentioned in connection with the nomination and he is Mr. Abasiom Waller, of Spotsylvania county, who ran for State Senator on the Republican ticket in this Senatorial District last year.

RAILROAD TALK.

The talk of a rairoad down the Northcrn Neck is again revived and there is no question about the fact that there is an earnest desire of the people of that section for a railroad from Frederickshurs to Cheeneeke Bay. A prominent burg to Chesapeake Bay. A prominent citizen of Northumberland county, in a communication in The Free Lance, a newspaper in Fredericksburg, says "it will pay the buisness men of these two cities (meaning Fred-ricksburg and Richmond) to equip the road themselves, even if they get no outside help. If, however, the matter is properly agitated, all the counties in the Neck will vote a liberal appropriation." The letter also advocates the suggestion to hold a convention in this city and calls on the county chair-man of each county in the Northern Neck to call a meeting of all citizens inested, on the different court days in September to elect delegates to the meet-ling her at some time to be determined upon later. He says further that no section of the country has improved and developed as rapidly in the past ten years as the Northern Neck and that thousands upon thousands of dellars' worth of produce is shipped from the wharves to Baltimore and Washington. THE LOMAN CASE.

A colored lawyer from Pennsylvania has been to Montross, Westmoreland county, looking into the recent trial of John Lomax, the negro, who was con victed of assault and sentenced to be hanged on September 9th. Dr. Robert O. Lydell, son of Hon. John L. Lydell, of Richmond county, has been appointed to an important position in the University of Maryland. Mr. George Morton, son of Judge G. W.

DRUNKS COME HIGH.

Drunks come high at Urbanna, a re-cently incorporated town on the Rep-pahannock River, in which liquor is not allowed to be sold. Mayor W. Key Howed a colored man $20 and costs for being drunk and disorderly on the street. The party pleaded guilty and begged mercy and was finally let off with half the amount of the fine and costs. Joe Kendall Camp Holds Its Annual Outing.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
DELAPLANE, VA., August 26.—The annual reunion of "Joe Kendall Camp, Contederate Veterans, was held at Bethel Academy, Fauquier county, on Saturday, Bethel is an ideal place for a picque. It is situated in a grove, the remnant of the primeval forest, and takes its name from old Bethel Church, which stands near where the Blackwells and Smiths. good old Methodist people, have worship-ped time out of mind. The school was founded by Albert G. Smith in 1865 in an old log school house, but since has assumed gigantic proportions, numbering among its alumni distinguished men of the South, and has attained almost a national reputation. Its founder went to Kansas as soon as he attained his majoirty, and was one of the founders owns valuable property in the heart of the city,

Like other Southern boys he always accompanied the pro-slavery contingent when on the warpath, and faced old Ossawattomie Brown on more than one occasion. But there were stronger attractions in Virginia for him than even the Kansas prairies in the person of Miss Bettie Blackwell, and he married and ing at the residence of her sister, Mrs. settled down. When the tocsin of war was sounded in 1861 he was not slow in responding, and served as adjutant of Virginia regiment throughout that memorable struggle.

After a business meeting at which several new names were added to the roll, all adjourned to the dancing pavilion to listen to the speaking. The first thing programme was a poem by Colonel Norman Berkeley, on the battle of Ball's Bluff, in which the gallant old Eighth Virginia was deservedly lauded, and par-ticularly Colonel "Lige" White, who afticularly Colonel "Lige" White, who afterwards, as the leader of the famous White's Battalion, carried dismay into the hearts of the Yankees. The first speaker was that gallant soldier, whom Fauquier has always delighted to honor. Colonel Robert M. Stribling. After elequent regrets at the absence of Generais Eppa Hunton and William H. Payne and a glowing tribute to Generais William Smith and Turner Ashby, he gave a graphic sketch of the heroism of Joe Kendall, after whom the camp was tamed. At the close of Colonel Stribling's address a sumptuous repast was served, first to the veterans and afterwards to all visitors. Everything good

Montague, Daniel, Martin, Willard, Keith and Other Distinguished Men Guests of the Occasion-Polk Miller on Hand Too - Programme.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) WARRENTON, VA., August 26 .- For norsemen and horse lovers all roads lead to Warrenton to-day, and consequently all these roads are hidden in clouds of dust raised by the many horses that are being ridden, driven and led into town for to-morrow's show.

Yesterday the crowds began to pour in by rail, four-in-hands, carriages, road carts and on horseback, and the influx is continuing to-day. The weather is per fect: the season is the most convenient for the farmers and other country folks, whose ability to leave home for a holiday depends upon the condition of the crops and everything points to a record break-ing attendance at the show grounds of the Warrenton Horse Show Association when its fourth annual horse show takes place to-morrow and Thursday.

LARGE ENTRIES. There are three hundred and ninety entries for the thirty-seven different classes and many of the most prominent horse owners in the country are among the ex-hibitors. The show ring, upon which a good sod has been grown, is in perfect condition, and will be free from dust for the convenience and comfort of exhibitors and spectators.

Every detail has been carefully ranged by the management, and all is in readiness for to-morrow.

Although horse is king, he will have to share his throne with many prominent men and handsome women, who will be present, Governor and Mrs. Montague present. Governor and Mrs. Montague and Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Willard will be the guests of Mr. Eppa Hunton; Senator Daniel, the guest of Colonel Thomas Smith; Senator Martin will visit Judge C. M. White; Judge James Keith is already in town, and Representative Fivey is expected temporary.

HONORS TO THE GOVERNOR. Several receptions and other entertain-ments are to be given in honor of the Governor and Mrs. Montague. In addition to these, there are two germans to be danced, the ladies' return german to-night and the horse show german, given by the Warrenton German Club, Thurs-

Among the exhibitors, the following are well known in Richmond: Mrs. Robert G. Shaw, of Greenwood, Queen Bee; Mr. and Mrs. James K. Maddux, Searchlight Grey Cap, Silver Tip, Shining Light, and several others; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hurkamp, Amaret, Allan Dale, Hornoipe and others; John P. Dulaney, Bache-or and Kathleen; Courtlandt H. Smith, Up-to-Date, Ogunquit, Lord Allen and others; Mrs. P. W. Charrington, Bobs; Mrs. Blair Johnson, Cygnet; Dr. James Kerr, thoroughbreds; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wallace, Snowflake, The Rat, Lady Lou, The Crow and others.

THE PROGRAMME. The show will begin each day at 10 clock and close at 6.
To-morrow will begin with the heavy draught, mare and foal class and end with the ladies' hunter class. Thursday begins with the thoroughbred stallion class and ends with ladies' green hunter Harness Horses-George B. Hulme, New York; W. H. West and J. F. Clarke, Baltimore.

REFUSED TO JUMP UP

Thereupon Sam Fisher Put a Ball in Tom Menefee's Leg. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

ROCKY MOUNT, VA., August 26 .-Last Saturday evening, after services at a colored church near Rocky Mount, Va. along the public highway a number of pistol shots were fired. Upon investiga pictol snots were inch. Cipol investiga-tion Tom Menlfee was found to be shot in the leg under the following circum-stances: Menifee was walkink along with his best girl, when Sam Fisher, John Fillon and Jake Dillon caught up with the pair, All three fired their pistols promiscuously in the air, evidently only to disconcert the equanimity of the doting couple. Menifee and his girl continued on chewing sweet gum profusely, and apparently imperturbed. Sam Fisher, not relishing the unconcernedness of Menifee and his female companion, commanded Menifee to "jump up." Menifee declined to ciey, whereupon Sam fired a pistol ball into the leg of Menifee, thus forcing a lively "jump up" on the part of Men-Souire Bernard sat upon the case, Sam was fined $20 for having in his possession a pistol apart from home on the Sabbath day. He was also sent on to answer the charge of unlawful shooting. The two Dillon boys were fined $20 each for carry-ing concealed weapons; also $20 each for carrying pistols on the Sabbath day. The Dillons paid up cash, having just returned from the strikingly prosperous coal re-gions of West Virginia, and were dis-chraged. Sam Fisher is now jumping up in the Franklin county jail, and expects to yisit your prosperous city in a short time for a long time.

SUFFOLK, VA.. Aug. 26.—Charged with assault and highway robbery, a white man and three negroes, whose names the police did not get, were arrested to-night in a grave-vard, where tney were dividing spoils. The men are accused of knocking Brakeman Tom Bland from a Noriôlk and Western train a few miles last of Suffolk this afternoon, and then, while the victim was in an unconscious condition, robbed him of $17.

Bland was not missed until the train neared Dwight, from which station the conductor sent out a telegraphic, inquiry. Later Bland recovered consciousness and walked to Suffolk, where his story was told.

One of the men arrested had in his pockets several bank notes, which he says are counterfeit. All were held, and the police are now searching for two white men, believed to be members of the same gang.

A Monkey Grabs a Boy's Arm at the Strange Opposition to Recent Action of the Council in Forbidding Cows on the Street-Dr. Denny Advocates an Academy at Oxford. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

LEXINGTON, VA., August 26.-The Board of Supervisors of Rockbridge have taken steps for the protection of the sulphur spring at Wilson's Springs, which is situated on an island in North River, just at the entrance to the famous Goshe en Pass, of Rockbridge county, and belongs to the county. They have appropriated $50 for the purpose of constructing a stone breakwater to protect the spring from the encroachments of the river. Mrs Mart Wilson, the proprietor of the hotel at that place, has also contributed $50 and the owners of cottages on the green Considerable opposition to the recent action of the Town Council of Lexingtor in practically forbidding the running at large of gattle within the corporate limits is becoming manifest. Several petiits is becoming manifest. Several peti-tions are being circulated asking the city fathers to rescind their former action. Probably this will be done. At the for-mer meeting there were present only three numbers, three being absent. The Mayor opposed the action. One of the absent members opposes the ordinance, while the other two are non-committal as to The Howard's Grove Excursion a Fine Success-Lamb and Wallace.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
WEST POINT, VA., August 28.—The excursion gotten up by Rev. J. A. Sullivar, of the West Point Baptist Church, for the benefit of Howard's Grove Baptist Courch, of Richmond, arrived here yes-terday at 6 P. M. It was quite a success. The excursionists, bent on enjoying themselves, neglected no opportunity to de so. In addition to the usual attraction, there was a "lighter excursion" down the York. The light was decorated with many Chinese lanterns and ice cream was served "aboard." Captain John Lame came on the excursion en route for Kine William Courthouse, where he will meet Mr. Jefferson Wallace. Many people from West Point are attending the regular County Court to-day and will take in "the speaking." Both of the above named gentlemen have friends in the county and great interest in manifested.
